12 modules

START DATE 01/04/26

REGISTRATION END DATE 30/09/26

DURATION 12-18 MONTHS FROM THE COURSE START DATE

COURSE COMPLETION DATE APRIL 2027 OR OCTOBER 2027

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

This course provides, in 1 Diploma, a general and broad introduction to the various concepts of what is known as “maritime law”. It covers a wide range of maritime law issues including salvage, towage and collision, carriage of goods by sea, international maritime conventions and regulations regarding employment at sea. The course is not an academic text for law practitioners, but more a study of the wide-ranging areas covered by laws that those working in the marine industry come across on a daily basis.

WHO IS THE COURSE SUITABLE FOR?

This course encapsulates a number of maritime law concepts from the arrest of ships to yacht insurance. It is not designed to be an academic text for practitioners, but more a general instruction to the varied maritime law concepts, written in plain English for those within the maritime industry, and those who have a genuine interest in the history, development and application of maritime law in general.

HOW THE COURSE WORKS

One module is released each consecutive month, from the April start date. Each module is uploaded onto our student web portal, allowing students to access the material at any stage during their course. The modules are available in a PDF format.

Terms & Conditions

THE COURSE

Teaching Method: Our courses are delivered by distance learning, unless otherwise stated.

COURSE DURATION:

Diploma and Certificate students will have a maximum of 18 months from the course start date to complete the modules and sit the exam.

Short Course students will have up to 6 months to complete their module(s).

COURSE MATERIAL

Course Language: Our courses are conducted entirely in English, in verbal and written format.

Delivery of Diploma and Certificate Modules:

1 module is released each consecutive month, from the start date (April/October). Each module is uploaded onto our student web portal, allowing students to access the material at any stage during their course.

The modules are available in a PDF format and students are able to download or print the material when required. Modules can be completed in any order, provided that all assignments are submitted no later than 6 weeks prior to the examination date.

Every effort will be made by the organisers to upload the modules monthly but they cannot be held liable for any delays resulting from unforeseen circumstances.

Presentation: The modules provide the foundational knowledge for the whole course which is designed to be self-contained. However, students are encouraged to deepen their understanding through additional sources.

Recommended Reading: A reading list will be provided where applicable.

Access: Course material is for personal study use only and may not be distributed without MTA's prior written permission.

Access to the course material will be given on receipt of payment. Any outstanding fees will also become payable on accessing the material.

STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS

Student Assignments: One included with each module. They are a compulsory element of the course and they must all be completed at least six weeks before the date of the final examination.

Self-Assessed Questions: Some modules contain self-assessment questions designed to help candidates consolidate their knowledge.

Studying Time: We recommend 10 to 30 hours study time per module, with additional time being set aside for completing the student assignments.

TUTOR SUPPORT

Tutorials: Students can choose to participate in a tutorial which will be held before the Diploma exams in April and October. Although this is not compulsory, many previous students have found the tutorials beneficial and an excellent opportunity to meet fellow students, the Course Director, authors and tutors.

Tutors and Authors: To support you during your studies, tutors and authors are available to help with any questions or technical queries by email and student forums.

ADMINISTRATION

For matters relating to enrolment, payment of fees, change of enrolment details, module mailings, please contact the Course Manager:
