Course Director

PANDORA MATHER-LEES

Director of Pandora Art Services

Pandora is an art historian with over 20 years of experience across galleries, museums, auction houses, logistics, education, and professional art organisations.

While working as Head of Commercial Development at Hedley's Private Client Logistics, she identified significant risks in moving art from yachts worldwide, inspiring her to create a course to educate the superyacht industry on art-related matters. Since 2017, Pandora has trained the stewardess community and superyacht crews through workshops, courses, and lectures, gaining deep insight into the challenges faced by those responsible for valuable art collections onboard.

UHNW Asset Management on Superyachts

12 modules

START DATE 01/04/26

REGISTRATION END DATE 30/09/26

DURATION 12-18 MONTHS FROM THE COURSE START DATE

COURSE COMPLETION DATE APRIL 2027 OR OCTOBER 2027

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Successfully caring for prestigious objects presents interior crew with unique challenges. Equip yourself with the knowledge and practical skills to care for art collections and luxury design on board superyachts.

This course will give you up-to-date techniques in arts management specifically for superyachts. Topics covered will include an art history and art market overview, environmental considerations, handling and transport, plus the legal issues involved in the movement of artworks across borders and at sea. You will be introduced to art as a fundamental feature of the luxury sector and will gain insights into its rich and diverse nature.

WHO IS THE COURSE SUITABLE FOR?

Designed for individuals aiming to work in asset management on superyachts, seeking to expand their knowledge and take on greater responsibility in the field, and professionals working alongside UHNW Asset Management who require a solid understanding of its operations. While prior industry knowledge is beneficial, it is not essential.

HOW THE COURSE WORKS

One module is released each consecutive month, from the April start date. Each module is uploaded onto our student web portal, allowing students to access the material at any stage during their course. The modules are available in a PDF format.

Terms & Conditions

THE COURSE

Teaching Method: Our courses are delivered by distance learning, unless otherwise stated.

COURSE DURATION:

Diploma and Certificate students will have a maximum of 18 months from the course start date to complete the modules and sit the exam.

Short Course students will have up to 6 months to complete their module(s).

COURSE MATERIAL

Course Language: Our courses are conducted entirely in English, in verbal and written format.

Delivery of Diploma and Certificate Modules:

1 module is released each consecutive month, from the start date (April/October). Each module is uploaded onto our student web portal, allowing students to access the material at any stage during their course.

The modules are available in a PDF format and students are able to download or print the material when required. Modules can be completed in any order, provided that all assignments are submitted no later than 6 weeks prior to the examination date.

Every effort will be made by the organisers to upload the modules monthly but they cannot be held liable for any delays resulting from unforeseen circumstances.

Presentation: The modules provide the foundational knowledge for the whole course which is designed to be self-contained. However, students are encouraged to deepen their understanding through additional sources.

Recommended Reading: A reading list will be provided where applicable.

Access: Course material is for personal study use only and may not be distributed without MTA's prior written permission.

Access to the course material will be given on receipt of payment. Any outstanding fees will also become payable on accessing the material.

STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS

Student Assignments: One included with each module. They are a compulsory element of the course and they must all be completed at least six weeks before the date of the final examination.

Self-Assessed Questions: Some modules contain self-assessment questions designed to help candidates consolidate their knowledge.

Studying Time: We recommend 10 to 30 hours study time per module, with additional time being set aside for completing the student assignments.

TUTOR SUPPORT

Tutorials: Students can choose to participate in a tutorial which will be held before the Diploma exams in April and October. Although this is not compulsory, many previous students have found the tutorials beneficial and an excellent opportunity to meet fellow students, the Course Director, authors and tutors.

Tutors and Authors: To support you during your studies, tutors and authors are available to help with any questions or technical queries by email and student forums.

ADMINISTRATION

For matters relating to enrolment, payment of fees, change of enrolment details, module mailings, please contact the Course Manager:
